Folsom Notes.

Miss Grace Allen, our primary teacher, left Saturday night to visit friends at Passamonte.

Mrs. Dally and Miss Bronson spent the week at "Eagle Rock," the guests of Mrs. Gann.

Mrs. Elston is down from Trinidad visiting friends and will spend a few days at her ranch near Sierra Grande.

Mr. Clark has moved his family here from Raton and will take charge of the Folsom Lumber Yard. Mr. White will go to Raton.

Pol Padilla and Miss Mamie Keleher were married Wednesday morning at the Catholic church. They later drove to Trinchera to visit a sister of the bride. The witnesses to the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. D. Padilla, brother and sister-in-law of the groom. The couple will reside in Folsom.

J. P. Odell is putting up a telephone line to his ranch east of town.

Mr. Simpson is quite sick with the measles.

M. M. White, our druggist, was in Trinidad on business Thursday.

Mrs. Thorp is spending a few weeks with her son, Sam Pawley and wife, down the Cimarron.

Mr. and Mrs. Fassett, of Denver, returned here Wednesday night and will continue their journey south by automobile. They were here a few weeks ago in their automobile, but were detained by the bad weather and gave up the trip for the time and returned to Denver. They hope to have better luck this time, however.

Mrs. B. F. Owen, who has been spending the past three weeks with friends in Oklahoma, returned home today, accompanied by Mr. Choate, an old friend of the family who will spend the summer here.

The republicans of Cleveland, O., have adopted resolutions endorsing Secretary Taft for the presidency.

Memorial Day was generally observed throughout the country by patriotic speeches and decorating the graves of the dead veterans. At Chicago Gen. Kuroki and his party took part in the exercises.

Hiram H. Leonard, former confidential man and cashier for the Evans, Snyder, Buel Live Stock Commission company of Chicago, has been indicted on a charge of embezzlement.

The supreme court of Missouri has fixed the date of "Lord" Barrington's execution for July 25 at Clayton, Mo.

RED RIVER PROSPECTOR NOTES.

The business men of Red River have signed an agreement among themselves to close their places of business on Sundays from now on.

E. S. Redding, a hotel man from Questas, left for Denver yesterday on business.

It is reported that some of the apple trees in the Taos valley have blossomed the second time this spring. Joseph Bruder writes from Goldfield, Nev., that since the close of the strike that camp is again on the boom. Mrs. C. H. Logan of Trinidad is visiting her daughter, Mrs. T. A. Nelson, of this place.

B. F. Hatch has finished timbering up the tunnel on the Iron Mask property and has begun pushing the tunnel into the mountain. Mr. Hatch is 77 years old and is one of those prospectors who believes in developing his properties. He expects to begin shipping ore from the Iron Mask. Douglas Putnam is home with his family for a few days. He has been working at Center, Colo.

Earl Young was over from Elizabethtown a few days last week doing some assessment work on claims near the Last Chance property up Pioneer.

J. O. Gill and the Oldham brothers are moving this week to the Bunker Hill mining property on Gold hill, where they will spend some time in
